EXAMINING
LIFE PRESERVERS

THE SAN FRANCISCO INSPECTORS MAKE TESTS OF STEAMERS IN PASSENGER TRAFFIC.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 2.—Assistant Local United States Inspector of Hulls James Guthrie yesterday tested the life preservers of the steamer Coptic and found them not up to the United States Standard. The American Government requires each life preserver on vessels of American register to sustain a weight of twenty-four pounds but the British Board of Trade requires life preservers on vessels under its jurisdiction to carry but fourteen pounds dead weight, the weight of the human body in water being but seven pounds. Under the regulations governing the inspection of British vessels these life preservers were passed.

Owing to the discussion of the value of life preservers, Local Inspector John K. Bulger and his assistants James Guthrie, have made exhaustive tests of the life preserver on vessels plying the waters of San Francisco bay.
Life preservers from the steamer General Weber, twelve years old, and condemned on account of the straps and buttons, sustained a weight of twenty-six pounds from August 31st to September 8th, in fresh water, with no appreciable absorption. Two new preservers of the class used by the Oakland ferries selected at random, supported respectively 32½ and 36 pounds for ninety-six hours, and after being out of water for twenty-four hours supported 32½ pounds apiece with ease.

THE HYDE IS FLOATED.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 14.— The American ship Henry B. Hyde, which sailed on February 9th last from New York in tow for Baltimore and went ashore on Dam Neck, ten miles south of Cape Henry, was floated yesterday and taken in tow for Norfolk, according to a telegram received yesterday. The Hyde, soon after she went aground, and was reported to be a probable total wreck was sold to the Norfolk Wrecking Company. She was owned by the California Shipping Company of this city. Soon after her grounding and the efforts of several tugboats to get her into deep water, a suit at law was instituted by the tugboat owners against her owners. The outcome of the case is still to be determined.

WILL FIGHT ON
THROUGH WINTER

JAPANESE WILL STARVE PORT
ARTHUR AND CONTINUE OPER-ATIONS IN THE NORTH.

PARIS, September 16.—The Matin to-day publishes a long interview with Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister in London, who is quoted as saying:

"Before the war we demanded that Russia recognize China's sovereignty over Manchuria. To-day, after our victories and expenses, we are no longer content with our former demand. After the fall of Port Arthur our conditions will be still more extreme, and after taking Vladivostok they will be yet more extreme.

"The next battle will be at Tia pass.
We shall continue hostilities throughout the winter. We have given up the plan of taking Port Arthur by assault and will compel its capitulation by famine. Its fall would free 50,000 men and enable them to re-enforce our northern army, but we do not need them just now."

REPUBLICANS
OPEN CAMPAIGN

ROUSING SPEECHES MADE LAST NIGHT AT THE BANNER RAISING OF THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

Fireworks, both actual and oratorical marked the banner raising at the Fourth District Republican Committee's headquarters last evening and a band discouraged pleasantly when the interval occurred. "Fourth District Republican Headquarters" was the device which the new banner bore and at it was hoisted from the corner of Merchant and Alameda streets so that it hung diagonally from the headquarters to the telephone building, there were loud cheers from the Republican crowd and an appropriate display of red, fireworks.

In the vacant lot Walkkiki of the rallying point a platform had been erected and seats placed. On the platform were Chairman A. G. M. Robertson of the Central Committee, Chairman Lorrin Andrews of the Fourth District Committee, Delegate Kuhio, John Lane, D. Kalaupokalani Jr., Carlos Long, W.
W. Harris, E. W. Quinn, E. K. Lil-likalani, J. A. Hughes, E. A. Douthitt and Frank Andrade. Lorrin Andrews presided and he opened with a brief speech in which he outlined the work of the meeting and the general plan of campaign which had been prepared. Chairman Robertson followed with a rattling address in which he bore particularly upon the necessity for Republicans to vote the straight ticket. This view of supporting the straight ticket was also impressed on the meeting by J. A.
Hughes and Candidate John Lane. The latter asked support not for himself personally but as a part of the ticket which had been officially endorsed by the Republican party. Cecil Brown had, he said, broken his pledge to the party and if he would break one pledge he would probably break others.

W. W. Harris appealed for the Republican party on the record it had already made in the Territory. The party had taken advantage of the remedial law when things were at a low ebb, gave the people work and gave them money thereby relieving in a measure the pressure of hard times. He appealed for a vote for the straight ticket and for the return of Kuhio as the Delegate with an overwhelming plurality.

In speaking of Kuhio's work Chairman Andrews spoke of the different matters in which he had scored pronounced success. He instanced the appropriation of millions for army and navy buildings, the establishment of a Federal quarantine service, the taking over of the lighthouse service, the proposed Federal building and the coming expenditures on fortifications. It was Kuhio, too, who introduced the bill which enables the Portuguese to acquire their leaseholds on Punchbowl slopes.

E. A. Douthitt gave one of his thrilling addresses on the principles of Republicanism and was followed by E. K.
Lilikalani, a candidate for the Fourth, who spoke in Hawaiian.

Andrade were both well received and good addresses and the crowd melted

INTER-ISLAND CONSENTED.

Frank Harvey has received a letter from the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, by which he is employed, re-giving consent to his running for senator on the Democratic ticket. It looked for a time this week, as if such consent would be withheld by the company but it was decided not to stand in his way in the matter.

EXPOSITION COST.

An official statement put the cost of running the St. Louis exposition at $31,- 000 a day. That, of course, does not include the large sums spent by persons doing business on the grounds under concessions from the management.

HIS REALIZATION.

"Hear you've been speculating, old man. What did you realize?" "I realized that I was a blamed fool," replied the other man, surely, a genuine Triune.
